C.S.6, Special Branch 18264/66 File No. _____ Date January 6, 1942.

SUBJECT: B.M. Sklarsky - information re.

With reference to the attached communication enquiries revealed the following information:-

Mr. Boris Moiseyevich Sklarsky alias Skliarsky alias Klaske, Russian of Jewish extraction, was born on April 29th, 1895, in Nikolaev, South Russia. He arrived in Shanghai from Harbin in 1920. After a brief stay here he proceeded to Tientsin where he became the editor of a Russian newspaper "Russkoe Slovo," from 1920 to 1923, after which he was employed in a fur store and later conducted his own commercial business. In 1929 he departed for the United States from which country he arrived in Shanghai in Sept. 1930.

Here he was employed as an inspector and expert in the Rat Extermination and Fumigation Department of the National Quarantine Service, from Febr. 1931 to Febr. 1932, after which he was without fixed employment until 1935 working as an agent on a commission basis in the sale of unclaimed goods on behalf of various local shipping companies.

Since Aug. 1935, Sklarsky is connected as a fumigator and disinfecter with the Shanghai Land Investment Co., 100 Jinkee Road, and resides together with his wife at 65 Park Road, Apt. 403.

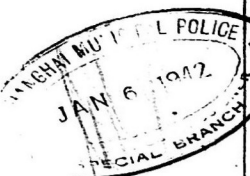

In July, 1936, a complaint of misappropriation was made against him to the S.M. Police, but was later withdrawn by the complainant (Misc. Rep. 508/36C.).

Otherwise he did not come to the notice of the S.M. Police in connection with any activities of an undesirable nature.
